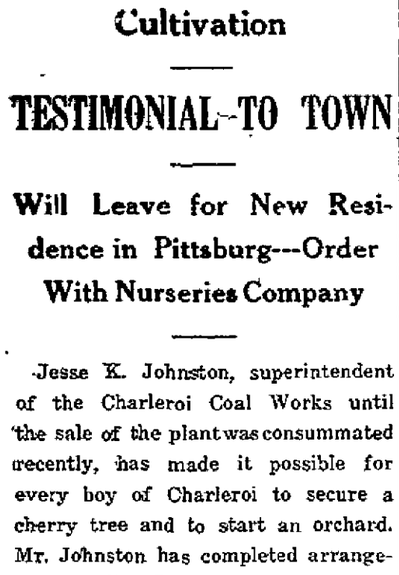
PLANS TO DISTRIBUTE CHERRY TREES TO BOYS

Jesse K. Johnston Starts Movement for Fruit Cultivation

TESTIMONIAL TO TOWN

Will Leave for New Residence in Pittsburg---Order With Nurseries Company

Jesse K. Johnston, superintendent of the Charleroi Coal Works until the sale of the plant was consummated recently, has made it possible for every boy of Charleroi to secure a cherry tree and to start an orchard. Mr. Johnston has completed arrangements with Greene's Nursery company at Rochester, N. Y., fo ra large order of standard cherry trees. These are to be distrbuted gratis by him to his boy friends. The gift will constitute one of his final testimonials to Charleroi. The first of April Mr. Johnston will remove his household goods to Pittsburg. Mrs. Johnston will leave for that city at that time. Mr. Johnston will remain here until some time this summer closing up business affairs.



Jesse K. Johnuston, who is giving Away Cherry Trees to his Boy Friends in Charleroi.

The order that Mr. Johnston has left with the Greene Nurseries will consist of only the standard varieties of orchard bearing size cherry trees, such as Black Tartarian, May Duke, English Morello and Napoleon. All of these are steady bearers in this vicinity.

Arrangements have been made to have the first order delivered to the boys living in the lower end of town and the hill district adjoining the Charleroi mine.

Mr. Johnston hopes to interest the boys in fruit growing with the idea of beautifying the town and making Charleroi a fruit growing place. The soil of this vicinity is well adapted for all kinds of fruit. The cherry was selected because it is immune from many of the pests and diseases that cause annually a considerable waste among fruits of other natures.

The regular monthly busines will be taken up.

THOMPSON IS A REAL COAL KING

Has Immense Holdings in Washington and Greene Counties

ASSESSMENTS COMPILED

The Pittsburg Coal company is first in acerage of territory owned in Washington county and first in valuation of coal land, according to the figures compiled in the commissioner's office at Washington. Josiah V. Thompson, of Uniontown is shown to be the real coal king of Southwestern Pennsylvania.

Including improvements the assessed valuation of the Pittsburg Company's land in Washington county is $12,887,305. The acerage is 87,460. Thompson and his associates according to the figures, own 83 tracts of coal land in Washington county alone, comprising 26,698 acres. The assessed valuation of this coal is approximately $2,000,000. They own about 130,000 acres of coal in Greene county, making his holdings in the two counties over 156,000 acres. The Greene county coal is not assessed as high as that held in Washington county, but the Thompson acerage in that county is valued, according to the assessors' figures, at about $6,000,000. All this coal is virgin, none of it being in a state of development.

The Vesta Coal Company, of the Jones and Laughlin Company of Pittsburg is second in valuation and acerage, with 22,115 acres, valued at $4,118,335, and the Ellsworth Collieries Company third with 15,199 acres valued at $3,787,832.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company of Pittsburg stand eighth in the amount of holdings, but fifth in the valuation of its coal land. This company's coal is located entirely in the Monongahela valley where all the coal land is being developed and where a higher assessment prevails.

The figures show that the Charleroi Coal Company, which recently sold out to the Carnegie Coal company was sixth in valuation, having according to the compilation 9,667 acres, and eleventh in valuation, the total valuation for purposes of taxation being $868,400. The Carnegie Coal Company is given as holding 1,155 acres at $153,080.

WEST PENN PLANS BIG INCREASES IN ITS POWER PLANTS

Additions to be Built at Connellsville in Order to Properly Care for Growing Trade in New Territory

The West Penn power house at Connellsville, which suplies the electric light and power used in Charleroi is to be doubled during the next two years. Orders have been placed with the Westinghouse company for two big turbines of 24,000 horsepower each. The company will spend $500,000 on the work.

Plans for increasing the size of the power house are now being drawn, it is stated and the work will be started in time to be ready for the delivery of the first turbine late in this year.

Within the past two years the original capacity of the power house was doubled but this did not give sufficient power to meet the demands made by the territory which has been taken over by the West Penn since that time.

The Kuhn interests backing the West Penn are constructing a hydro-electric plant along the Cheat river and the fact that the power house at Connelisville is to be greatly enlarged leads to the belief that an invasion of West Virginia will follow the completion of the hydro-electric project and that much of the current generated at that plant will be used in the new territory.

Action against the dairyman followed. Bonnell plead no defense and paid the minimum fine.

WOMAN'S BATTLE WITH LEOPARD AT THE PALACE

"In the Claws of the Leopard" is the title of a three-reel special feature that will be presented at the Palace Theatre tonight. It is a story of the south African wilds, where a mining prospector and his wife are the victims of an intrigue to do away with them. The husband is decoyed to a gambling den, while the wife is left alone in an insecure house in the African wilds where wild beasts roam unrestricted. A leopard gains entrance to the house, attacks the woman, who fights the beast from room to room. When she is about to succumb her husband arrives in time to shoot the leopard and rescue her. It is a most thrilling and sensational climax.

Coroner Heffran to Investigate the Death of Bentleyville Man

Coroner James T. Heffran has announced that he will hold an inquest Wednesday into the mysterious shooting of Carmina Cirella a young Italian whose bullet riddled body was found near the railroad tracks at Bentleyville last Wednesday. The body was interred last Saturday. Three men are now in the Washington county jail in connection with the murder. The last arrest in the case was made on Saturday when Tony Kalosky, alias Merino, who lived not far from the scene of the murder was taken into custady by State Trooper Ames of the Monongahela detachment of State police.

BILL FOR "DRYER" IS DEFEATED

Steele Prohibition Amendment Loses in the State House

ANTI FORCES INCREASE

Harrisburg, March 11—By a vote of 108 to 90, the Steele resolution for the submission of a prohibition amendment to the constitution was voted down on second reading in the house Monday night. This was a gain for the temperance forces over the vote for local option, which mustered 83 for to 121 against. With the exceptions of the club license bill, this probably disposes of the important liquor regulating bills for this session. It is now definitely stated that the club license bill will also be killed. At the beginning of the session the saloon men were supposed to be backing the bill, but this raised such a storm of opposition among the club people that all the liquor interests are now said to be arrayed against the proposition to pass a club license bill at this time, and the bill is expected to go the way of the local option and the prohibition amendment bills and be killed in the house.

The joint resolution amending the constitution to authorize the state to issue $50,000,000 for the improvement

Noah Hough Says Shot Killing Policeman Was Accidental

FUNERAL HELD TODAY

Friends Pay Last Tribute of Affection to Michael Entinger at Monessen

As his alleged murdered languished in jail at Greensburg the funeral of Michael Entinger, the Monessen policeman who was shot Saturday night, was held at St. Leonard's Catholic church at Monessen. Hundreds of friends paid their last respects to his memory. His bier was covered with floral tributes from his brother lodgemen and friends. The funeral cortege was under the escort of the members of the Monessen police force. Funeral services were conducted at 10 o'clock by Rev. Hogan, assistant rector. Interment was in Grandview cemetery, which is on the hill south of Monessen.

In a very cool, self possessed manner, Noah Hough, accused of the murder of Entinger told his story to Assistant District Attorney Harry Cope, in the district attorney's office at Greensburg Monday evening. A crowd of people who had followed State Constables Ames, Moore and Merrifield with their prisoner as he was taken through the streets jostled each other at the door of the room to get a look at the prisoner and to hear his account of the murder.

Hough it is related stated that the shooting was purely accidental; that he never intentionally committed murder. He said he was sitting in a lower room of the house when the rap came at the door. In order to protect himself he carried a gun with him to the door. After opening the door, Hough stated that he was standing on the inside of the house with the officer still in the porch when the gun which he held extended accidently exploded as Entinger seized it and the officer fell with a groan.

Horrified at the sight of the man lying on the porch with blood streaming from the wound in his chest and not knowing whether he had killed him or not, Hough said he became half crazy and all that he could think of was to get away from the place. He eluded the officers posted about the house to prevent any of the inmates of the alleged disorderly house escaping when the house was raided, and had been wandering aimlessly around until he was arrested by the three members of the State constabulary about noon yesterday in a house at Barren Run, near Scottdale.

Hough was perhaps the coolest per-

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

In taking leave of his boy friends of Charleroi, Jesse K. Johnston, former superintendent of the Charleroi Coal works, who will sever his connections here this summer, proposes to give them a remembrance that will not only show his sincere desire for their personal development, but which will have a direct bearing upon the civic advancement of Charleroi. He proposes to give each of his boy friends a cherry tree of a standard variety, which will be procured from a reputable nursery, with the stipulation that the tree be set out and cultivated.

Mr. Johnston, who was one of Charleroi's foremost citizens from the foundation of the town, as well as a man of large business and industrial affairs, has always been a friend of the boys. He has taken a deep interest in their welfare, and his many acts of kindness and aid in their behalf will never be known, because they were bestowed privately and unostentatiously with no desire for publicity. In perpetuating a remembrance in the form of fruit bearing trees he will confer a blessing and benefit upon the whole community that will be extended onward to future generations.

A WELCOME SOUND

The lay of the hen is one of the harbingers of spring and is more welcome to the ... than the lowing of the cattle upon the hillsides or the bleating of the lambs in the meadows, but the lay of the homely old hen is twice more welcome. This is made manifest ... by the cacklings of the industrious "biddies" who apparently do not observe union hours in beginning their day's work.

There is much significance in the "lay" of the hen, whether audible or material. ... It means that eggs will be cheaper and it also means that when the "lay" of this most useful bird is to be heard in the congested residential districts of Charleroi that the back yard egg industry is on the increase. Eggs are a luxury, and the greater the production, the less liable are they to soar to skyward prices. Therefore the "lay" of the homely old hen is more welcome in the spring than the lay of the bluebird and the robin.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Theatre tells a story of a friend of Theatre tells a story on a friend of his who was very much in love with a young lady. The friend was devoted, but in this case, as in all others, the course of true love did not run smooth. They had the proverbial lovers' quarrel and parted, each resolving never to speak to the other again. A few days elapsed, when the young man to his great surprise received a letter from his lady love, telling him that his overtures for a reconciliation were accepted, and that the difference was largely her fault.

As a matter of course the young man was glad to call and make up the difference. He was on hand promptly and the couple "kissed and made up," just as they do in stories and movies. After awhile, when all was discussed and settled satisfactorily and each had acknowledged the blame, the young lady said:

"What I admire in you is your forgiving nature. I was angry and stubborn until I got the flowers, and then I relented and wrote you the note. It was real lovely of you to send them."

Speaking of the matter later to his friends the young man said:

"I was awfully glad to make up all right, but what gets my goat is who in ——— sent the flowers."

There's a young lady in this town who is noted for her excellent taste in dress and the wide variety of colors and costumes she wears. In a company of her own sex the other evening her great versatility in the matter of dress was the topic of discussion.

"I don't se how you can wear so many different colors," one said. "I can't wear red, or green or yellow, as they don't suit my complexion at all Now you can wear any of these colors or any other and you look just lovely and stylish How do you manage it?"

"Oh, the color scheme of my clothes and complexion don't worry me at all I just make my complexion to suit the color that I fancy for the time being."

son in the district attorney's office when he related his story. No violence was attempted at any time by the crowd.

Hough refused to identify the women who were taken from Uniontown by Constable P. J. Bryne.

One of the women who gave her name as Blanche West in Uniontown confessed to Constable Bryne on the way from Uniontown that she had used an alias there to keep people from learning that she had gotten into trouble Her right name she said, was Mytle Wills and she had relatives living in Umontown. She concluded that it would be best if she give her right name and let her relatives help her out of her trouble.

Emma Reynolds, as she gives her name and whom it is thought is the daughter of Hough, denied this most emphatically and Hough refused to commit himself. Emma established a reputation in Uniontown when she said "she was going to keep on lying all through the case and that no one could make her tell the truth" and the authorities are searching for some one to identify her. The women are being held as witnesses in the case.

They dropped the harness on the outside, being interrupted, it is believed by some one passing.

Tuberculosis Remedy Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alterative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness [illegible] large number of Consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently even these in quantities cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, it is good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one but what is going to improve the patient? Eckman's Alterative has brought about full recovery in many cases of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is one —

90 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: On June 3 1905, I was operated upon for Tubercular peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alterative which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 127 pounds and am absolutely well. Believing I owe it to [illegible] and others I make this statement.

(Sworn Affidavit) EDNA PINZER.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Charleroi resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

Mrs. Charles Bromwich, 711 Washington avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "About two years ago I had a severe attack of kidney disease and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. I also had headaches and a feeling of languor and although I tried a number of remedies, I was not helped. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and deciding to try them, I got a box at Pepe Bros.' Drug Store. In a few days after using this remedy, I felt a great deal better and before long was completely cured. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as when I gave a public statement [illegible] two years ago. The cure has been permanent."

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

of highways passed second reading, in the house without opposition and will come up for final pasage today. It is believed that it will be finally adopted without serious opposition.

Senator Snyder takes a crack at the newspapers, by introducing a bill establishing a state commission of journalism. This would require all papers in the state to have at least one journalist who has passed the state examination and is granted a certificate.

The non-partisan ballot bill has passed the house finally and now goes up to the senate. Its progress through that body will be watched with interest by the friends of the measure. It is rather expected to pass as its provisions will rob the new Progressive party to a large degree of its partisan strength in the next campaign for county officials throughout the state.

PLANS TO DISTRIBUTE CHERRY TREES TO BOYS

Jesse K. Johnston Starts Movement for Fruit Cultivation

TESTIMONIAL TO TOWN

Will Leave for New Residence in Pittsburg---Order With Nurseries Company

Jesse K. Johnston, superintendent of the Charleroi Coal Works until the sale of the plant was consummated recently, has made it possible for every boy of Charleroi to secure a cherry tree and to start an orchard. Mr. Johnston has completed arrangements with Greene's Nursery company at Rochester, N. Y., fo ra large order of standard cherry trees. These are to be distrbuted gratis by him to his boy friends. The gift will constitute one of his final testimonials to Charleroi. The first of April Mr. Johnston will remove his household goods to Pittsburg. Mrs. Johnston will leave for that city at that time. Mr. Johnston will remain here until some time this summer closing up business affairs.

Jesse K. Johnston, who is giving Away Cherry Trees to his Boy Friends in Charleroi.

The order that Mr. Johnston has left with the Greene Nurseries will consist of only the standard varieties of orchard bearing size cherry trees, such as Black Tartarian, May Duke, English Morello and Napoleon. All of these are steady bearers in this vicinity.

Arrangements have been made to have the first order delivered to the boys living in the lower end of town and the hill district adjoining the Charleroi mine.

Mr. Johnston hopes to interest the boys in fruit growing with the idea of beautifying the town and making Charleroi a fruit growing place. The soil of this vicinity is well adapted for all kinds of fruit. The cherry was selected because it is immune from many of the pests and diseases that cause annually a considerable waste among fruits of other natures.

An ordinance for the paving of Fallowfield avenue from Ninth street to below Tenth street, where the street intersects with Lincoln avenue is to be one of two ordinances considered by council tonight at a regular adjourned meeting to take place of one to have been held last Tuesday. Another ordinance taken up will likely be that submitted by the Westside for rights of way on a route towards Bentleyville. Both ordinances are much favored and are in a fair way to pass. The regular monthly busines will be taken up.

Has Immense Holdings in Washington and Greene Counties

ASSESSMENTS COMPILED

The Pittsburg Coal company is first in acerage of territory owned in Washington county and first in valuation of coal land, according to the figures compiled in the commissioner's office at Washington. Josiah V. Thompson, of Uniontown is shown to be the real coal king of Southwestern Pennsylvania.

Including improvements the assessed valuation of the Pittsburg Company's land in Washington county is $12,887,305. The acerage is 87,460. Thompson and his associates according to the figures, own 83 tracts of coal land in Washington county alone, comprising 26,698 acres. The assessed valuation of this coal is approximately $2,000,000. They own about 130,000 acres of coal in Greene county, making his holdings in the two counties over 156,000 acres. The Greene county coal is not assessed as high as that held in Washington county, but the Thompson acerage in that county is valued, according to the assessors' figures, at about $6,000,000. All this coal is virgin, none of it being in a state of development.

The Vesta Coal Company, of the Jones and Laughlin Company of Pittsburg is second in valuation and acerage, with 22,115 acres, valued at $4,448,335, and the Ellsworth Collieries Company third with 15,199 acres valued at $3,787,832.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company of Pittsburg stand eighth in the amount of holdings, but fifth in the valuation of its coal land. This company's coal is located entirely in the Monongahela valley where all the coal land is being developed and where a higher assessment prevails.

The figures show that the Charleroi Coal Company, which recently sold out to the Carnegie Coal company was sixth in valuation, having according to the compilation 9,667 acres, and eleventh in valuation, the total valuation for purposes of taxation being $868,400. The Carnegie Coal Company is given as holding 1,155 acres at $153,080.

WEST PENN PLANS BIG INCREASES IN ITS POWER PLANTS

Additions to be Built at Connellsville in Order to Properly Care for Growing Trade in New Territory

The West Penn power house at Connellsville, which supplies the electric light and power used in Charleroi is to be doubled during the next with the Westinghouse company for two big turbines of 24,000 horsepower each. The company will spend $500,000 on the work.

Plans for increasing the size of the power house are now being drawn, it is stated and the work will be started in time to be ready for the delivery of the first turbine late in this year.

Within the past two years the original capacity of the power house was doubled but this did not give sufficient power to meet the demands made by the territory which has been taken over by the West Penn since

The Kuhn interests backing the West Penn are constructing a hydro-electric plant along the Cheat river and the fact that the power house at Connellsville is to be greatly enlarged leads to the belief that an invasion of West Virginia will follow the completion of the hydro-electric project and that much of the current generated at that plant will be used in the new territory.

PLEADS NO DEFENSE AND PAYS $25 FOR OFFENSE CHARGED

Twenty-five dollars is what Floyd Bonnell, a dairyman of Charleroi paid to Justice of the Peace Wheeler as the result of a suit instituted by John Jenkins, special agen of the dairy and food division. Bonnell was accused of selling milk with water added. Some time ago Special Agent Jenkins secured a sample of milk he sold in Charleroi and had it analyzed by a State chemist. Action against the dairyman followed. Bonnell plead no defense and paid the minimum fine.

The husband is decoyed to a gambling den, while the wife is left alone in an insecure house in the African wilds where wild beasts roam unrestricted. A leopard gains entrance to the house, attacks the woman, who fights the beast from room to room. When she is about to succumb her husband arrives in time to shoot the leopard and rescue her. It is a most thrilling and sensational climax.

LANGUISHES IN JAIL CHARGED WITH MURDER

To Conduct an Inquest This Week

Coroner Heffran to Investigate the Death of Bentleyville Man

Coroner James T. Heffran has announced that he will hold an inquest Wednesday into the mysterious shooting of Carmina Cirella a young Italian whose bullet riddled body was found near the railroad tracks at Bentleyville last Wednesday. The body was interred last Saturday. Three men are now in the Washington county jail in connection with the murder. The last arrest in the case was made on Saturday when Tony Kalosky, alias Merino, who lived not far from the scene of the murder was taken into custody by State Trooper Ames of the Monongahela detachment of State police.

Steele Prohibition Amendment Loses in the State House

ANTI FORCES INCREASE

Harrisburg, March 11—By a vote of 108 to 90, the Steele resolution for the submission of a prohibition amendment to the constitution was voted down on second reading in the house Monday night. This was a gain for the temperance forces over the vote for local option, which mustered 83 for to 121 against. With the exceptions of the club license bill, this probably disposes of the important liquor regulating bills for this session. It is now definitely stated that the club license bill will also be killed. At the beginning of the session the saloon men were supposed to be backing the bill, but this raised such a storm of opposition among the club people that all the liquor interests are now said to be arrayed against the proposition to pass a club license bill at this time, and the bill is expected to go the way of the local option and the prohibition amendment bills and be killed in the house.

The joint resolution amending the constitution to authorize the state to issue $50,000,000 for the improvement

Noah Hough Says Shot Killing Policeman Was Accidental

FUNERAL HELD TODAY

Friends Pay Last Tribute of Affection to Michael Entinger at Monessen

As his alleged murdered languished in jail at Greensburg the funeral of Michael Entinger, the Monessen policeman who was shot Saturday night, was held at St. Leonard's Catholic church at Monessen. Hundreds of friends paid their last respects to his memory. His bier was covered with floral tributes from his brother lodgemen and friends. The funeral cortege was under the escort of the members of the Monessen police force. Funeral services were conducted at 10 o'clock by Rev. Hogan, assistant rector. Interment was in Grandview cemetery, which is on the hill south of Monessen.

In a very cool, self possessed manner, Noah Hough, accused of the murder of Entinger told his story to Assistant District Attorney Harry Cope, in the district attorney's office at Greensburg Monday evening. A crowd of people who had followed State Constables Ames, Moore and Merrifield with their prisoner as he was taken through the streets jostled each other at the door of the room to get a look at the prisoner and to hear his account of the murder.

Hough it is related stated that the shooting was purely accidental; that he never intentionally committed murder. He said he was sitting in a lower room of the house when the rap came at the door. In order to protect himself he carried a gun with him to the door. After opening the door, Hough stated that he was standing on the inside of the house with the officer still in the porch when the gun which he held extended accidently exploded as Entinger seized it and the officer fell with a groan.

Horrified at the sight of the man lying on the porch with blood streaming from the wound in his chest and not knowing whether he had killed him or not, Hough said he became half crazy and all that he could think of was to get away from the place. He eluded the officers posted about the house to prevent any of the inmates of the alleged disorderly house escaping when the house was raided, and had been wandering aimlessly around until he was arrested by the three members of the State constabulary about noon yesterday in a house at Barren Run, near Scottdale.

Hough was perhaps the coolest per-

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

In taking leave of his boy friends of Charleroi, Jesse K. Johnston, former superintendent of the Charleroi Coal works, who will sever his connections here this summer, proposes to give them a remembrance that will not only show his sincere desire for their personal development, but which will have a direct bearing upon the civic advancement of Charleroi. He proposes to give each of his boy friends a cherry tree of a standard variety, which will be procured from a reputable nursery, with the stipulation that the tree be set out and cultivated.

Mr. Johnston, who was one of Charleroi's foremost citizens from the foundation of the town, as well as a man of large business and industrial affairs, has always been a friend of the boys. He has taken a deep interest in their welfare, and his many acts of kindness and aid in their behalf will never be known, because they were bestowed privately and unostentatiously with no desire for publicity. In perpetuing a remembrance in the form of fruit bearing trees he will confer a blessing and benefit upon the whole community. It will constitute a living monument to his memory that will be extended onward to future generations.

A WELCOME SOUND.

The lay of the birds is one of the harbingers of spring and is most welcome to the winter bound residents, but the lay of the homely old hen is thrice more welcome. This is made manifest these spring mornings by the cacklings of the industrious "biddies" who apparently do not observe union hours in beginning their day's work.

There is much significance in the "lay" of the hen, whether audible or materially realistic. It means that eggs will be cheaper and it also means that when the 'lay' of this most useful bird is to be heard in the congested residential districts of Charleroi that the back yard egg industry is on the increase. Eggs are a luxury, and the greater the production, the less liable are they to soar to skyward prices. Therefore the "lay" of the homely old hen is more welcome in the spring than the lay of the bluebird and the robin.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Theatre tells a story of a friend of Theatre tells a story on a friend of his who was very much in love with a young lady. The friend was devoted, but in this case, as in all others, the course of true love did not run smooth. They had the proverbial lovers' quarrel and parted, each resolving never to speak to the other again. A few days elapsed, when the young man to his great surprise received a letter from his lady love, telling him that his overtures for a reconciliation were accepted, and that the difference was largely her fault.

As a matter of course the young man was glad to call and make up the difference. He was on hand promptly and the couple "kissed and made up," just as they do in stories and movies. After awhile, when all was discussed and settled satisfactorily and each had acknowledged the blame, the young lady said:

"I was awfully glad to make up all right, but what gets my goat is who in ——— sent the flowers."

There's a young lady in this town who is noted for her excellent taste in dress and the wide variety of colors and costumes she wears. In a company of her own sex the other evening her great versatility in the matter of dress was the topic of discussion.

"I don't se how you can wear so many different colors," one said. "I can't wear red, or green or yellow, as they don't suit my complexion at all. Now you can wear any of these colors or any other and you look just lovely and stylish. How do you manage it?"

"Oh, the color scheme of my clothes and complexion don't worry me at all. I just make my complexion to suit the color that I fancy for the time being."

son in the district attorney's office when he related his story. No violence was attempted at any time by the crowd.

Hough refused to identify the women who were taken from Uniontown by Constable P. J. Bryne.

One of the women who gave her name as Blanche West in Uniontown confessed to Constable Bryne on the way from Uniontown that she had used an alias there to keep people from learning that she had gotten into trouble. Her right name she said, was Mytle Wills and she had relatives living in Uniontown. She concluded that it would be best if she give her right name and let her relatives help her out of her trouble.

Emma Reynolds, as she gives her name and whom it is thought is the daughter of Hough, denied this most emphatically and Hough refused to commit himself. Emma established a reputation in Uniontown when she said "she was going to keep on lying all through the case and that no one could make her tell the truth" and the authorities are searching for some one to identify her. The women are being held as witnesses in the case.

Steve Dorbits who with Andy Graylock of Arnold City is said to have been in the house at the time has been arrested. Graylock was apprehended in Charleroi Monday and taken to Monessen. Both Dorbits and Graylock will be released on security.

Robbers Raid Farms.

Robbers on Friday night entered the stable of Samuel Kimberland who lives on the Pittsburg Coal company's farm, just west of Houston, and stole a double set of work harness, a new single set of buggy harness and a new rubber tired buggy. They also entred the stable of I. N. Paxton, whose farm adjoins the Kimberland place on the west. Here also they took a set of harness and some feed. They dropped the harness on the outside, being interrupted, it is believed by some one passing.

E. Back of Ellsworth left nothing undone. The Ellsworth High school girls prepared and served a luncheon for those attending the meeting. These high school girls received their training as cooks in the Domestic Science department of the Ellsworth schools and the result of their efforts was highly appreciated by the teachers and gave proof of the practical benefits of domestic science in the schools.

Tuberculosis Remedy Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alterative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and in permanently benefiting a large number of Consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but [illegible] for some.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to improve the patient? Eckman's Alterative has brought about full recovery in many cases of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is one:—

191 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.

[illegible] at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alterative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 123 pounds and am absolutely well. Believing I owe it to myself and others, I make this statement."

(Sworn Affidavit) EDNA FINZER

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchial [illegible] Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Charleroi resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

Mrs. Charles Bromwich, 714 Washington avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "About two years ago I had a severe attack of kidney disease and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. I also had headaches and a feeling of languor and although I tried a number of remedies, I was not helped. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and deciding to try them, I got a box at Pipe Bros.' Drug Store. In a few days after using this remedy, I felt a great deal better and before long was completely cured. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as when I gave a public statement [illegible] years ago. The cure has been permanent."

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

of highways passed second reading, in the house without opposition and will come up for final passage today. It is believed that it will be finally adopted without serious opposition.

Senator Snyder takes a crack at the newspapers, by introducing a bill establishing a state commission of journalism. This would require all papers in the state to have at least one journalist who has passed the state examination and is granted a certificate.

It is rather expected to pass as its provisions will rob the new Progressive party to a large degree of its partisan strength in the next campaign for county officials throughout the state.
